

- Q In what direction did you go on your mule? A Back to Phillips farm, parallel with the Phillips lane.
- Q Phillips lane? A Yes, sir.
- Q That is, you went on the Phillips farm parallel with the lane?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q And you tied the mule? A Way back; yes, sir.
- Q What did you tie the mule to? A Some small cedars there.
- Q Then what direction did you go in? A Then I walked back on foot.
- Q Before you heard or saw anything, after you tied the mule and started to walk back, where were you going to?
- A I was going to go to Derassey's lane and stand there and watch for the wagon to get back.
- Q How far did you get before your attention was attracted?
- A I might have got--I don't know--thirty, something like that, feet away from where I tied the mule.
- Q Can you point out any object that you got near, any tree?
- A Yes, there was brush all along, and then I got near a big cedar there. There is a big cedar there.
- Q A cedar tree or cedar stump? A Big cedar tree.
- Q When you got near the cedar tree, then what happened?
- A I heard a quarrel.
- Q You heard voices? A Voices.
- Q Could you distinguish whether they were men's voices or
